Contact between Port Adelaide's Byron Pickett and Adelaide's Rhett Biglands from the second quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Biglands went to shepherd Pickett, who responded by bracing himself as the two players collided with each other. Pickett's action was not deemed to be reportable and no further action was required.

Contact between Port Adelaide's Brett Montgomery and Adelaide's Brett Burton from the second quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Montgomery made a spoiling attempt as Burton went to mark. While contact was made to Burton's head, Montgomery had his eyes on the ball at all times and the contact with Burton was accidental. No further action was required.

TUESDAY 6 SEPTEMBER

The AFL wishes to advise there will be no Tribunal hearing tonight, Tuesday September 6, as all players have accepted the penalties offered by the Match Review Panel from the weekend's round of matches.

Domenic Cassisi, Port Adelaide, has accepted a $2400 fine making negligent contact with umpire Hayden Kennedy during the third quarter of the First Elimination Final between Port Adelaide and the Kangaroos, played at Telstra Dome on Sunday September 4, 2005.

Leigh Colbert, the Kangaroos, has accepted a $900 fine for wrestling Chad Cornes, Port Adelaide, during the third quarter of the First Elimination Final between the Kangaroos and Port Adelaide, played at Telstra Dome on Sunday September 4, 2005.

Peter Burgoyne, Port Adelaide, has been charged with wrestling Leigh Colbert, the Kangaroos, during the third quarter of the First Elimination Final between Port Adelaide and the Kangaroos, played at Telstra Dome on Sunday September 4, 2005.

He can accept a $900 fine with an early plea.

A first offence for wrestling is a $1200 fine. An early plea reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to a $900 fine.

Other incidents assessed: No Charge Laid.

The match day report laid against Geelong's Steve Johnson for engaging in rough conduct against Melbourne's Ben Holland was reviewed. The panel said while Johnson made contact with Holland's head, there was only minimal force and his action therefore did not constitute a reportable offence and no further action was required.

Contact between West Coast's Daniel Chick and Sydney's Michael O'Loughlin from the second quarter of Friday's match was reviewed. The panel said both players grappled with each other. Chick grabbed O'Loughlin's jumper and pulled and then pushed him. While contact was made to O'Loughlin, Chick's action was seen as a pushing motion, rather than a striking action. No further action was required.

Contact between Geelong's Steven King and Melbourne's Jeff White from the third quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said King and White contested a boundary throw-in, with White positioned behind King's left shoulder. The ball fell towards the right side of King and, as the ball was dropping and the area was clear, he swung his right foot to kick the ball as it fell. At the same time, White moved towards the ball to hit it with his left hand. King missed the ball and his right lower leg made contact with White's face in the follow-through. At no stage was King looking anywhere but at the ball. Despite the terrible injuries suffered by White, the contact made by King was accidental and therefore was not a reportable offence. No further action was required.

Contact between the Kangaroos' Glenn Archer and Port Adelaide's Warren Tredrea from the first quarter of Sunday's match was reviewed. The panel said Archer swung his right arm towards Tredrea as Tredrea bumped him. The force involved in Archer's action was deemed to be below the level required to constitute a reportable offence.

For charges laid by the Match Review Panel, clubs and players have until 10am tomorrow, Tuesday September 6, to decide whether to accept the penalty allocated, or to contest the case.

TUESDAY 30 AUGUST

The AFL wishes to advise there will be no tribunal hearing tonight, Tuesday August 30, as all players have accepted the penalty offered by the Match Review Panel.

Mark Ricciuto, Adelaide, has accepted a one-game suspension for engaging in rough conduct against Adam Selwood, West Coast, during the second quarter of the Round 22 match between Adelaide and West Coast, played at Subiaco on Saturday August 27, 2005.

Chad Cornes, Port Adelaide, has accepted a $900 fine for insulting language towards umpire Michael Vozzo at the end of the second quarter of the Round 22 match between Port Adelaide and Fremantle, played at AAMI Stadium on Saturday August 27, 2005.

MONDAY 29 AUGUST

The AFL wishes to advise the Match Review Panel has assessed the following incidents from the weekend's round of matches.

Charges Laid:

Mark Ricciuto, Adelaide, has been charged with a Level Three engaging in rough conduct offence against Adam Selwood, West Coast, during the second quarter of the Round 22 match between Adelaide and West Coast, played at Subiaco on Saturday August 27, 2005.

Mark has an existing five-year good record with no reportable offence of any kind which enables him to gain a 25 per cent discount on penalty. Due to his good record, he can then accept a one-game suspension with an early plea.

The incident was assessed as negligent conduct (one point), high impact (three points), in play (one point) and high contact (two points). This is a total of seven activation points, which relates to a Level Three offence, drawing 325 demerit points and a three-game suspension. He has an applicable good record, which reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to 243.75 points and a two-game suspension. An early plea reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to 182.81 points and a one-game suspension.

(Please note, the Match Review Panel took into account a medical report on Selwood's condition in determining the assessment of impact).

Chad Cornes, Port Adelaide, has been charged with a first offence for insulting language towards umpire Michael Vozzo at the end of the second quarter of the Round 22 match between Port Adelaide and Fremantle, played at AAMI Stadium on Saturday August 27, 2005. He can accept a $900 fine with an early plea.

A first offence for abusive language towards an umpire is a $1200 fine. An early plea reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to a $900 fine.

Other incidents assessed: No Charge Laid.

The match day report laid against Hawthorn's Luke Hodge for engaging in rough conduct against Sydney's Brett Kirk was reviewed. The panel said Hodge did not make contact to Kirk's head at any time. The impact of the bump was to the chest and shoulder area and no further action was required.

Contact between West Coast's Daniel Kerr and Adelaide's Hayden Skipworth from the third quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Kerr's bump was to the chest area as Skipworth disposed of the ball. No further action was required.

Contact between the Kangaroos' Michael Firrito and Carlton's Anthony Koutoufides from the third quarter of Sunday's match was reviewed. The panel said Firrito made a round-arm spoil that took Koutoufides around the neck. It was their view the contact was late but it was not a striking motion. No further action was required.

For charges laid by the Match Review Panel, clubs and players have until 10am tomorrow, Tuesday August 30, to decide whether to accept the penalty allocated, or to contest the case.

TUESDAY 23 AUGUST

The AFL wishes to advise there will be no Tribunal hearing tonight, Tuesday August 23, as all players have accepted the penalties offered by the Match Review Panel from the weekend's round of matches.

Brendon Goddard, St Kilda, has accepted a reprimand and 93.75 points towards his future record for striking Steven Dodd, Fremantle, during the first quarter of the Round 21 match between St Kilda and Fremantle, played at Subiaco on Friday August 19, 2005.

Corey Jones, the Kangaroos, has accepted a $900 fine for abusive language towards emergency umpire Troy Pannell during the second quarter of the Round 21 match between the Kangaroos and Sydney, played at the SCG on Sunday August 21, 2005.

MONDAY AUGUST 22

Charges Laid:

Brendon Goddard, St Kilda, has been charged with a Level One striking offence against Steven Dodd, Fremantle, during the first quarter of the Round 21 match between St Kilda and Fremantle, played at Subiaco on Friday August 19, 2005.

He can accept a reprimand and 93.75 points towards his future record with an early plea.

The incident was assessed as reckless conduct (two points), low impact (one point), in play (one point) and body contact (one point). This is a total of five activation points, which relates to a Level One offence, drawing 125 demerit points and a one-game suspension. He has no applicable good or bad record. An early plea reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to a reprimand and 93.75 points towards his future record.

Corey Jones, the Kangaroos, has been charged with a first offence for abusive language towards emergency umpire Troy Pannell during the second quarter of the Round 21 match between the Kangaroos and Sydney, played at the SCG on Sunday August 21, 2005.

A first offence for abusive language towards an umpire is a $1200 fine. An early plea reduces the penalty by 25 per cent to a $900 fine.

Other incidents assessed: No Charge Laid.

The match day report laid against Sydney's Ryan O'Keefe for striking the Kangaroos' Jess Sinclair was reviewed. The panel said O'Keefe pushed his arm back to break contact with Sinclair after marking the ball. The contact was minimal and to the chest. No further action was required.

Contact between the Western Bulldogs' Will Minson and Melbourne's David Neitz from the first quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Minson put his knee into Neitz's back but with minimal force. No further action was required.

Contact between the Western Bulldogs' Wayde Skipper and Melbourne's Simon Godfrey from the second quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Skipper made a careless tackling attempt. The contact was made to the shoulder and not to the head. No further action was required.

Contact between the Western Bulldogs' Peter Street and Melbourne's James McDonald from the second quarter of Saturday's match was reviewed. The panel said Street did make contact with his forearm as he attempted to shepherd, but his action was careless and was not a striking motion. No further action was required.

For charges laid by the Match Review Panel, clubs and players have until 10am tomorrow, Tuesday August 23, to decide whether to accept the penalty allocated, or to contest the case.

TUESDAY 16 AUGUST

The AFL wishes to advise there will be no Tribunal hearing tonight, Tuesday August 16, as all players have accepted the penalties offered to them by the Match Review Panel.
